

S.K. PG & RESEARCH CENTRE

Rural College, Kanakapura 562 117

Department of HISTORY

Department Activities

Periodical test, seminars home assignments, group
Discussions, visit to local places of historical places and tour Programmes.

SPECIAL LECTURE PROGRAMMES :-

Sl. No.	Name	Date	Topic
1	Devarakonda Reddy	07-08-2018	Cultural Contributions of Gangas
2	Dr. Aruni	11-09-2019	Cultural Development on the bank of river ARKAVATHI

1. Devarakonda Reddy :- The department of History of Rural College invited renovated historian Dr. Devarakonda Reddy to deliver a special lecture on Art and Architecture during the reign of Ganga dynasty. Gangas became responsible to long the foundation of the development of Art and Architecture of Karnataka. Their capitals and principle cities were filled with Dravidian style of Architecture and the Gangas can be acclaimed to have laid everlasting foundation for heritage and tradition.

Pallava and Chola rulers were the contemporaries of Gangas which became the reason for harmonious blending of Art and Architectures of all of them Talkad, Kolar, Channapattana are some of the centers where their creation proclaim the greatness of their rule. The memorials are the all time reminders of the developments in the field of art and Architecture.

2. Dr. Aruni :- “Cultural development along the banks of Arkavathi” was the subject matter of an illuminating talks by renowned historian and chronicler Dr. H. S. Aruni also the Bangalore Regional Director of Indian Council of Historical Research.

He adopted the PTT mode to track the historical events that the river witnessed from its place of origin in the Nandi Hills to its merger with Kaveri at Sangama near Karnataka.

He elaborated on the life and times of the communities that thrived on the banks of the river. The agricultural patterns, nature's diversity, Geographical characteristics of the land and the people. Also the cultural developments and their reflections on the life and times of communities.

The political situations, the ruling dynasties from the times of Gangas to the days of Nadaprabhu Kempegowda their cultural practices and preferences and the consequences of the style of rulers on the ruled constituted a learned exposition of the speaker. Dr. Aruni made special mention of the role of Savanadurga the for trees of the Yelanahka dynasty, geographical characteristics of the abounding forests.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS PROGRAMME

Ithihasika Parampare Ulisi (Preservation of Historical Heritage) :

“Preservation of Historical Heritage” a community awareness programme has been conducted under the co-operation of Karnataka Ithihasa Academy, Bangalore. Members of the department delivered lectures on the preservation of epigraphics, old manuscripts, sculptures, coins, etc., at different educational institutions. Details are given below.

2018-19

Sl. No.	Date	Place	Guest lecture By
1	28.08.2018	Govt. Junior College Kanakapura	Dr.Parthasarathi H.G
2	31.08.2018	G.H.S Shivanahalli	Vijendra M.J
3	01.09.2018	G.F.G.C Kanakapura	Dr. Govindappa

2019-20

Sl. No.	Date	Place	Guest lecture By
1	13.09.2019	Nirvanaswamy Residence School, Degulamatta, Kanakapura	Lt. M. J. Vijendra
2	14.09.2019	G.F.G.C Kanakapura	Dr. Parthasarathi